COMMUNICATION TO THE EXAMINER

Commissioner for Patents

Sir:

Applicant continues to assert his right to priority in the above-identified application. Through no fault of Applicant, the application papers were not timely delivered to Applicant's U.S. patent counsel for filing with the USPTO because, under information and belief of Applicant's counsel, the Brentwood Post Office in Washington D.C. failed to timely deliver the application papers. The Brentwood Post Office was temporarily closed and mail in this facility was sequestered due to a terrorist act that contaminated its mail with anthrax spores.

Applicant requests that the USPTO honor this claim for priority as a result of circumstances beyond Applicant's control.

Please charge any fee deficiency or credit any overpayment with respect to this paper to Deposit Account No. 18-0013.

Respectfully submitted,

Carl Schaukowitch
